SYLLABUS

This course will focus on the historical evolution of the office of the President of the United States. During our 200-plus years, it has been changed dramatically by the actions of particular incumbents. Special attention will be paid to changes in the balance of power between the presidency and Congress.

Your grade for this course will be based upon:

- The results of two written examinations (20% each)
- Weekly, graded, in-class discussions (40%)
These will be based on the assigned readings. A packet containing all questions is available at the UNLV Bookstore.
- Scores on presidential video tests (20%)
 - Presidential video biographies will be viewed weekly in the UNLV Library on an out-of-class basis: twenty-plus hours of viewing between August and December. This assignment takes the place of a term paper.

Policy regarding make up-exams: Ordinarily no makeups will be given. However, if extraordinary circumstances seem to require one, then students must do the following in order to qualify: (1) inform the instructor of the problem at some time prior to the exam itself and (2) provide documentation afterwards. All make-up exams will be given on the afternoon of Wednesday, December 3, 2008. It is the responsibility of the individual student in need of a make-up to contact the teaching assistant to find out the exact time and place.

ERes: UNLV's Electronic Reserve Reading Service: All readings other than those in your textbooks are available on the internet at <http://ereserves.library.unlv.edu>. At this site, input the bar code from your UNLV ID card and then simply follow the prompts provided by the system. If you have any questions or if problems arise, call the Library's Circulation Department at 895-2111.

The UNLV Disability Resource Center (DRC) houses the resources for students with disabilities. If you have a documented disability that may require accommodations, you will need to contact the DRC for the coordination of services. The DRC is located in the Student Services Complex (SSC), Room 137. Their number is (702) 895-0866. For additional information please visit <http://www.unlv.edu/studentlife/drc>.

Cell Phones: Please be certain turn off all cell phones prior to the start of each class. If your cell rings during class you will receive one warning. After that you will be asked to leave class for the rest of the day.

Recording: I will be happy to allow you to record our class sessions, if you ask permission. However, any unauthorized recording (on cell phone, computer, camera, recorder, etc) and/or distribution will subject you to civil suit.

Safety Warning: In years past there have been attacks and carjackings in UNLV parking lots. These tended to occur during "evening class" hours. Be alert. Walk to your vehicles in groups.
