SYLLABUS

This is a class in American Politics. On Page 1 of our text, the author's state: "The U.S. Constitution and its crucial Bill of Rights survive not because the parchment they were written on is still with us, but because each generation of Americans respects, renews, and works at understanding the principles and values found in these precious documents." What will happen here will be our joint attempt to answer two important questions. First, where have we been, and second, where are we going both as a nation and as individual citizens in pursuit of that "experiment" which began when fifty-five human beings met in Philadelphia some 215 years ago?

*Your personal involvement in this class can make it a life changing experience. All of us in this room and beyond its doors must share in the ongoing dialogue that can hopefully carry this nation toward a positive and productive future

**The assignments indicated on the syllabus are to be prepared for the following class.

There will be two texts in this class: Government by the People, ed. David B. Magleby et al. Sixth Edition, and The Sagebrush State by Michael Bowers. These books are available in the bookstore, but it is assumed that you already have them in your possession

***Your grade for this class will be based on three two page essays (25%), response papers (15%), short tests (10%), Midterm (25%), and Final essay (25%).

GRADING SCHEDULE (100% POSSIBLE)

A	90-100%
B	89-80%
C	79-70%
D	69-60%
F	Incomprehensible – No one should fail this class!

ASSIGNMENTS

- Sept. 2: Read Chapter I “Constitutional Democracy” in Magleby.
- Sept 9: Read Declaration of Independence A-1
Read Federalist #10
Read Federalist #51
Read American Constitution P. 40-47
**Prepare for a short in class test on the Amendments to the Constitution that will take place at next class. (Make sure that you have familiarized yourself with all of the amendments!) This test will be without the aid of book or notes.
- Sept 16: **SHORT TEST ON THE AMENDMENTS!****
Taking a look at today, bring in an article for next time that deals with the present political arena and which deals with an issue that pertains to the Bill of Rights. Attach a short typewritten one page response to the article on which you have noted your school and class.
- ASSIGNMENT #1: *This assignment is due at the next class. Take a look back at P. 21 in our text, and choose one of the ten statements specified in the box marked “Challenges for Our Constitutional Democracy.” You are asked to speak to the questions your chosen item presents, and to do so in a two page, double spaced essay. Any quotations from the text or outside resources should be appropriately footnoted and should be included in your essay.
- Sept. 23: Read “Political Culture and Ideology”
- Assignment #2: You are asked here to take a position as to where you stand Conservative or Liberal. Which of the two positions is most convincing and why? In this two page essay select only one of the two possible choices, even if you find yourself somewhere in the middle. Try to determine which view is closer to your own. The chapter speaks to this subject matter, but outside research is recommended.**

PAGE 3 SYLLABUS AMERICAN POLITICS

I will also randomly place each of you in a group that will defend one of the positions. You will be asked to select a representative who will participate in a formal debate to be held at the next class.**

Sept. 30:

**Discussion on Political Culture and Ideology.

DEBATE BETWEEN CONSERVATIVES AND LIBERALS

Read Chapter V: “Political Parties and Interest Groups”

Read Chapter VI: Public Opinion, Voting and Elections

A look at today’s news! For the next class bring in an article that deals with the present political landscape and speaks to an issue that is characteristic of the political ideology of one of our two major political parties. Be sure to attach a one page typewritten response to the article, and make sure you have indicated your school and class on your work.

Oct. 7:

Read Chapter XII: “First Amendment Freedoms”

Read Chapter XIII “Equal Justice Under the Law”

**Get a hold of a copy of Martin Luther King’s “I Have a Dream” speech and write a one page typewritten response to how much of his dream has come to pass.

Oct. 14:

**No assignment work on Mid Term

Oct. 21:

MID TERM ESSAY DUE

Video: “Separate but Equal” A great film that graphically shows how the Civil Rights Movement in this country worked to change the political landscape in the southern states. It will also give you an inside view of the workings of our Supreme Court.

Oct. 28:

NO CLASS – NEVADA DAY

Read Chapter VII “The Media and American Politics”

Bring in an article and a one page response for this class which in your view indicates how much power the media wields in today’s world. If you wish to do so, you can speak to a specific news broadcast you have watched and indicate your perspective on how it attempted to affect public opinion.

- Nov. 4: Read Chapter IX “The Presidency: The Leadership Branch”
ASSIGNMENT#3: After reading this chapter on the presidency, indicate in your paper those qualities that define a good president. Select one of our presidents who you believe is or was most representative of those particular qualities, and provide a short background of that individual’s contributions to American politics. (*We will discuss the next time class meets.)
- November 11: NO CLASS VETERANS DAY
Read Chapter VIII “Congress the People’s Branch”
*Prepare for in class test the next time we meet. The test will deal with the differences between the House of Representatives and the Senate to be found on P. 240 of the text.
- November 18: *SHORT IN CLASS TEST***

Read “The Judiciary” P. 330-354
*Spend some time on the Internet investigating cases presently being discussed by the Supreme Court of the United States, or look for any recent decisions of the Court. In a one page typewritten response paper, indicate the issues involved and/or the decision the Court has already rendered in that particular case.
- November 25: NO CLASS THANKSGIVING BREAK
** For the next class come prepared to meet with me individually to discuss your plans for the final paper that is due on December 9. Prepare a short outline of how you plan to present your work and if possible bring the texts you plan to use.
- December 2: Individual conferences regarding final papers. If time permits, we will hold a class discussion regarding how far we have come in understanding our political landscape. **Bring an article to class that you feel speaks to where our country stands as it enters the year 2006. No response paper will be required.
- December 9: **FINAL ESSAY DUE****

CONCERNING EXAMINATIONS

Short Assignments: You will be assigned three two page essays that are due at the next class session. These papers will totally represent 25% of your cumulative grade. They should be typewritten and double spaced. Quotations from the readings will be required, and they should be footnoted appropriately. Please do not submit any handwritten copy! Be prepared to share your ideas with the other members of the class in open discussion.

Response papers: You will be assigned response papers that are due at the next class session. These papers will represent 15% of your grade and will hopefully add to the open dialogue I plan for this class.

In class tests: You will receive two class tests which will be without either notes or textbooks. They will be in short essay form and will represent 10% of your total class grade.

Midterm Exam Essay: After reading The Sagebrush State, you will be asked to write a five page essay in which you examine both the political history of Nevada and the similarities or differences that exist between our Federal Constitution and that of our state. **No specific assignments will be given as to your reading of the text. You will be responsible for reading the entire book prior to when your midterm essay is due. Your grade for this essay will be predicated upon the thoroughness of your examination of the text, and you will be expected to use quotations from both the general historical material as well as the constitutional document included in the Sagebrush State, as well as from the American Constitution which is in your official text. Outside research should be used, and all references should be footnoted appropriately. IT IS IMPORTANT THAT YOU START READING THE BOOK IMMEDIATELY IN ORDER THAT YOU ARE READY TO COMPLETE YOUR MIDTERM ESSAY APPROPRIATELY! This essay will represent 25% of your class grade.

Final Exam Essay: This exam will require that you prepare an essay of at least ten pages in length. You are asked here to select one of the subjects from the list below, and that you take a position in the debate surrounding the questions it raises. This exam will represent 25% of your class grade. As the final exam requires that you take a position as it relates to the subject you select, references to the views of specific political science sources should be an important part of your work. Quotations from this material and the class text (where applicable) should be incorporated in your essay as substantiation of your point of view! **You will need to use at least three outside book sources as well as the Internet. Remember, all quotations must be properly footnoted.

FINAL ESSAY TOPICS

1) The American Constitution: a living document yes or no? Is “original intent” a viable concept? Can we follow the words of the framers to the letter, or did they intentionally leave the Constitution an “open” document because they realized that times would change and that the laws had to grow as the nation grew?

2) Selecting Federalist #10 or Federalist #51 by James Madison or #78 by Alexander Hamilton, you are asked here to examine how the view taken is reflected in today’s political arena. In reading these papers, one can recognize that much of what these men wrote has become a reality. Look at their words and at American politics and find those parallels.

3) The Supreme Court: What do you believe is the real job of the Supreme Court of the United States? Is its only responsibility to determine the constitutionality of specific laws made by Congress, and to rule on decisions of the lower courts, or as suggested by some legal scholars, is its place in our society to make positive social change by virtue of the decisions it renders? Consider Roe v Wade or Brown v Board of Education or any recent Supreme Court decisions that you believe may be relevant to your argument. (A good addition would be an examination of the recent Senate hearings on the nomination of Judge John Roberts to the Supreme Court and his stated position on this question.)

4) Do our laws really work? Are the laws regarding drug usage, abortion, welfare or terrorism providing positive change in our society? Should the law be followed to the letter even if citizens believe that it is wrong? For example, was it the obligation of all German citizens to follow the laws of the Nazi regime? Is Civil Disobedience ever warranted? Consider the civil rights movement of the 1960's as well as the reaction of many Americans to the Vietnam War and more recently the war in Iraq and the Patriot Act. Might there ever be an occasion for Americans to once again choose to question decisions made by their government, and what might their recourse be? (Use these questions as possible approaches for responding. It is not necessary that you answer all of them.)

Class Participation: Your participation in class discussions will reflect importantly in your class grade. No unexcused absences will be permitted. Should it be necessary for you to miss a class due to illness or unforeseen problems, I will expect an e-mail from you explaining why you will not be attending. Any more absences will affect your grade. Roll call will be called regularly.

Late Papers: Please note! You have a one week grace period to hand in short essay and response papers. Should you find it necessary to do so it will bring your grade for the paper one letter grade down (i.e. an "A" will receive a "B", etc.) ** MIDTERM AND FINAL ESSAYS MUST BE TURNED IN ON SPECIFIED DATES!

** All papers must be appropriately marked with your name, this class, section and the date, and must be fastened together by clip or staple.

PLAGERISM IS A SERIOUS OFFENCE AND WILL NOT BE TOLERATED ANYWHERE AT THIS UNIVERSITY. WHEN USING THE WORDS OF AN AUTHOR, OR PARAPHRASING HIS OR HER IDEAS, MAKE CERTAIN THAT YOU HAVE PROPERLY FOOTNOTED THE WORK IN YOUR ESSAY! YOU ARE INDIVIDUALLY AND SOLELY RESPONSIBLE FOR VIOLATIONS OF COPYRIGHT AND FAIR USE LAWS. THE UNIVERSITY WILL NEITHER PROTECT NOR DEFEND YOU NOR ASSUME ANY RESPONSIBILITY FOR EMPLOYEE OR STUDENT VIOLATIONS OF FAIR USE LAWS.
