

ΠΣΑ – ΘΦ

PI SIGMA ALPHA

The National Political Science Honor Society

History

Pi Sigma Alpha was founded in 1920 at the University of Texas for the purpose of bringing together students and faculty interested in the study of government and politics. Professor C. Perry Patterson was an early leader of the first chapter and served as national president of ΠΣΑ from 1920 until 1932. The success of the honor society at the University of Texas prompted other institutions to apply for chapters, with the Universities of Oklahoma and Kansas establishing chapters by 1922. In March of that year the society held its first national convention at the University of Oklahoma. UNLV's Theta Phi Chapter was organized in 1978. Growth in the honor society was gradual throughout the 'twenties and 'thirties and accelerated after the Second World War; today there are over 615 chapters throughout the country. There is at least one college or university with a Pi Sigma Alpha chapter in every state and the District of Columbia and, as of 1995, the U. S. territory of Guam.

Purpose of an Honor Society

The Articles of Incorporation of Pi Sigma Alpha state as one of its purposes "to stimulate scholarship and intelligent interest in political science." The society functions at the national level, sponsoring programs and events of value to the profession and teaching of political science, and at the chapter level. Each chapter is encouraged to provide a framework for enriching the exposure of its members and the wider university community to the study of government and issues of public concern. The goals of Pi Sigma Alpha are consistent with the aims of the Association of College Honor Societies (ACHS) as set out in the ACHS Booklet of Information. This material provides a good framework for understanding the meaning and value of a political science honor society and its place on an American campus, and makes worthwhile reading.

Description and Purpose of the Theta Phi Chapter of Pi Sigma Alpha

Section 1. Pi Sigma Alpha is the national political science honor society with chapters established in colleges and universities of accredited and recognized standing that offer a prescribed minimum of work in political science. Section 2. The Theta Phi Chapter was established in 1978 and is the officially recognized chapter of Pi Sigma Alpha at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas. Its objectives are to promote a greater understanding by students of issues relevant to political science, to encourage scholarship, and to recognize students who have achieved academic excellence in the discipline. The Chapter functions as an integral part of the Department of Political Science, providing extracurricular activities related to the above objectives.
