COURSE DESCRIPTION

Japanese 302 is designed for students who have completed two years of college-level Japanese, and wish to develop further proficiency in all areas of Japanese language skills.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

The immediate goals are as follows:
(1) to review and to learn various grammar points and sentence patterns
(2) to develop further proficiency in listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills
(3) to expand usable vocabulary, kanji, and expressions.

COURSE POLICIES

Regular attendance and active class participation are expected of all students. Students are also expected to be present for the entire duration of the class meeting as well as to refrain from eating, chewing gum, using communication devices, and working on homework assignments in class. Preparation is graded on the scale of 0 (absence) to 5 (fully prepared and present for the entire duration of the class meeting). Tardiness and early departure without justifiable reasons are subject to grading down.

Assignments must be turned in at the beginning of the class. Late assignments are accepted no later than the next class meeting. In addition, the scores of all late assignments are reduced by 50%. Assignments, compositions, presentations and interviews must be completed entirely by each student without external assistance.
Otherwise, no credit is given. No make-ups of presentations, interviews, lesson tests, and final exam are given without the submission of official documentation to prove the justifiable nature of the absence.

Religious Holidays Policy - Any student missing a class because of observance of a religious holiday shall be given an opportunity during that semester to make up missed work. It shall be the responsibility of the student to notify the instructor of anticipated absences by the last day of late registration to be assured of this opportunity. Also, students who represent UNLV at any official extracurricular activity shall be given an opportunity to make up missed work by providing official written notification to the instructor no less than one week prior to the missed class(es).

Copyright - The University requires all members of the University Community to familiarize themselves and to follow copyright and fair use requirements. You are individually and solely responsible for violations of copyright and fair use laws.
